Five members of the new Cabinet are concurrently Senators elect on November 1, 1954, and three are members of the House of Representatives. Of the 21 Ministers, 11 are lawyers by profession, although not all have been actively practicing their profession. In addition, there are three doctors, an architect, a sugar mill administrator, a newspaperman, a teacher, an engineer, a labor leader and a politician.

Twelve members of the cabinet are affiliated with one or another of the four political parties that formed the government coalition supporting Batista in the recent elections. Of these, six are affiliated with the PL, the PD and the PUR, a proportion representative of the dominant position of the PAP in the coalition. The remaining nine Ministers have been politically inactive or have unknown political affiliations.

Bureau File 64-1000

Authority for discontinuing use of above files was contained in my memorandum to you dated 3/9/55 (64-1000-762).

Over 1,500 Latin-American setup files will no longer be used and a copy of this memorandum will be prepared for each file used under the old S. I. S. system. The material that would have gone into any file in which a copy of this memorandum will be placed will now be placed in one of the following files all of which are on the standard sub-list with a file being available for each country on each subject matter as mail on that subject matter is received. The following are the files that will be used in lieu of the old S. I. S. files.

64-175	Foreign Miscellaneous General
64-200	Communist Party
109-12	Political Matters
110-6	Economic Matters
111-1	Social Conditions
112-8	Foreign Funds Outside U. S.
113-7	Military and Naval Matters

In order that each file opened on this standard sub-list will reflect where previous information on the particular foreign country is located, a copy of this memorandum will be placed in each new file opened.

RECOMMENDATION:

If approved, a multi-lith copy of this memorandum will be prepared for each old and new file involved.

SUBJECT: JORGE AGOSTINI
FOREIGN POLITICAL MATTER - CUBA~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ - AIR POUCHDECLASSIFIED BY 60290 R5/mjt/94
ON 6/2/03

JORGE AGOSTINI was formerly a Comandante (Major) in the Cuban Navy. During the administrations of Presidents RAMON GRAU and CARLOS PRIO, he [redacted]

[redacted] and was well-known to this office and a good contact. AGOSTINI was a career Naval Officer and prior to his entry into the Cuban Navy, he had fought in the Spanish Civil War on the Loyalist side.

Following the 3/10/52 coup d'etat by the forces of General FULGENCIO BATISTA, AGOSTINI was retired from the Cuban Navy. He continued to reside in Cuba and was in infrequent contact with the Havana Office although on the occasion of those contacts he usually furnished some information concerning revolutionary activity against the BATISTA Government.

At a later date, AGOSTINI left Cuba and for a time resided in Miami. He was apparently in close contact with PRIO, and according to sources in the Cuban Army [redacted] AGOSTINI was believed to have returned to Cuba about November, 1954, in a clandestine manner for the purpose of leading and directing the activities of the opposition underground against the BATISTA Government.

The fact that AGOSTINI was in charge of underground activity was recently confirmed by JOSE DUARTE OROPESA, an active underground revolutionary leader who came into the open following a general political amnesty law passed by the Cuban Government in early May, 1955. DUARTE said that the underground had originally been led and directed by AURELIANO SANCHEZ ARANGO but the latter was forced to take asylum in an Embassy in Havana for the second time in May, 1954, and thereafter AGOSTINI was sent to replace him.

Re: Jorge Agostini

Several weeks ago Mrs. ~~EMMA SURI~~ de AGOSTINI, the wife of the subject, called at this office when in the Embassy for the purpose of applying for a visa to visit the United States. At that time she claimed she did not know the current whereabouts of her husband.

On the night of <sup>late June</sup> 6/9/55 AGOSTINI was shot and killed, allegedly while resisting arrest. According to official announcements appearing in the local press, information was received that AGOSTINI was hiding in a house in the Vedado Section of Havana and, thereafter, combined forces of the Department of Investigation of the National Police and the Cuban Naval Intelligence Service surrounded the block in which the house was located and thereafter moved in. AGOSTINI allegedly opened fire on the police and Navy officials and was thereafter killed.

On 6/13/55 Mrs. AGOSTINI called at the Havana Office and advised SA Clark D. Anderson that she had been in Miami at the time her husband was killed. She did not disclose her sources but stated she had been informed that her husband, upon noting that agents of the Department of Investigation and the Cuban Navy were surrounding the block in which the house where he was staying was located, went out through the back, climbed over the wall, walked through a garden of the Anglo-American Hospital which is located immediately behind the house where he was staying, and thereafter gained the sidewalk on the opposite side of the block. While walking down the block, he was placed under arrest by agents of the Department of Investigation. He was then seated in a police car to await the arrival of Lt. JULIO LAURENT, of the Cuban Navy Intelligence Service.

When LAURENT arrived, he ordered AGOSTINI brought out of the car and while two agents held AGOSTINI's arms, LAURENT smashed him in the face with the butt of his Thompson sub-machine gun. Thereafter, LAURENT and others shot and killed AGOSTINI while he was lying on the ground in an unconscious condition.

It is felt that doubtless the story of Mrs. AGOSTINI was somewhat embellished. However, there seems to be little doubt that Agostini submitted to arrest peacefully and was thereafter shot down in cold blood. What little information it has been possible to obtain from reliable police contacts indicates this to be the case.

Re: Jorge Agostini

The above has been furnished to the Bureau in detail because the killing of Agostini has resulted in a wave of repulse on the part of thinking Cuban people. It is felt that it demonstrates considerable stupidity on the part of officials of the Cuban Government in permitting such an incident to occur. The BATISTA government has apparently been striving to increase its popularity and to establish an atmosphere of peace and civic feeling within the public of Cuba, this latter being demonstrated by the political amnesty law recently passed by the government. Although there is certainly no indication that the killing of AGOSTINI in itself might set off a revolution, it is certainly one factor that would tend to lead toward a revolution. It will also probably result in a wave of vengeance killings should the BATISTA government ever fall from power. A similar series of killings developed after the fall of Dictator MACHADO in 1933.

On 6/14/55 Mr. JAY MALLIN, a TIME Magazine stringer in Havana, advised that he had submitted an article to TIME setting forth the official version of the AGOSTINI killing as well as the version of Mrs. AGOSTINI, she having been interviewed by him. MALLIN stated he did not know whether TIME would publish his article.

The story as furnished by Mrs. AGOSTINI, as set forth above, was made available locally to the Embassy Political Officer.

There is attached a memorandum reporting the results of a conversation with former Cuban President RAMON GRAU SAN MARTIN.

Source T-1 in the memorandum is SA CLARK D. ANDERSON. The interview with Dr. GRAU was set up by HARRY PEREZ FERNANDEZ, former Captain in the Cuban National Police and a good contact of the Havana Office. Only Dr. GRAU and SA ANDERSON were present at the interview.

Copies of the attached memorandum were made available locally to the Counsellor of the Embassy

Re: RAMON GRAU SAN MARTIN

The following information was received from Source T-1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on July 26, 1955.

Source stated that on that date he had a conversation with former President ~~RAMON GRAU SAN MARTIN~~. GRAU stated that the Provincial Assemblies of the ~~Partido Revolucionario Cubano (Autentico)~~ are presently being reorganized and it is planned that after the reorganization a campaign will be inaugurated to demand general elections in 1956. Cuba

GRAU pointed out to Source that the Constitution of 1940, which the BATISTA Government claims is in effect, provides for elections every four years starting with 1940, the year the Constitution was put into effect. On this basis, GRAU claims that general elections should be held in 1956.

GRAU also pointed out to Source that the Constitution of 1940 prohibits a President from serving more than four consecutive years at any one time. He said that since BATISTA has been in office since March 10, 1952, his four years will terminate in 1956 and GRAU stated this was another reason why general elections should be held.

GRAU was queried by Source as to his opinion on the return to Cuba of ex-President ~~CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS~~, which return has been announced for August 6, 1955. GRAU commented that he assumes PRIO is returning to Cuba to seek a peaceful solution to the Cuban problem and that, as such, he thinks PRIO is to be commended. GRAU declined to comment on what effect, if any, PRIO's return will have on GRAU's plans.

GRAU terminated by saying that he feels the only solution to the poor economic conditions which he claims exist in Cuba today is for the BATISTA Government to announce general elections for 1956. He said he feels such announcement would result in a large amount of idle capital being put to work.

It is felt that a tour of the Bureau's facilities would make a great impression on General TAMAYO and Chief FERNANDEZ PARAJON and would serve as a strong basis on which to begin relations between this office and the new organization when and if it appears that it is satisfactorily established and in good operating order. Both General TAMAYO and Chief FERNANDEZ PARAJON have on different occasions expressed their great admiration for the Bureau and the Director and it is believed that they would be genuinely appreciative of the opportunity to see the Bureau's Washington headquarters.

Background information on General DIAZ TAMAYO has been previously furnished the Bureau. ENRIQUE FERNANDEZ PARAJON was born on May 16, 1902 at Havana. The files of this office reflect that he served in the Cuban Secret Police from 1935 until 1941 and in the Cuban National Police from 1941 to 1944. He lost his job in the police when RAMON GRAU SAN MARTIN replaced General BATISTA as President of Cuba. He engaged in private business activities, including the operation of a private investigative agency from 1944 until March 10, 1952 when forces of President BATISTA staged a coup d'etat and ousted then President CARLOS PRIO SOCARRAS. Shortly thereafter he was named as Chief of the Cuban Secret Police and has continued in this position up until this time.

FERNANDEZ PARAJON has been an excellent contact of the Havana office during the time he has been Chief of the Secret Police. It will be recalled that agents of his department in 1953 arrested and returned to Miami one CHARLES WESLEY JOHNSON who had staged a fake kidnapping in Miami and had proceeded to Havana with some $20,000 in ransom jewelry. JOHNSON was subsequently tried and convicted in Federal court in Miami on an ITSP charge and Chief FERNANDEZ PARAJON made available the services of his agents both before the Grand Jury and at the time of the trial.

FERNANDEZ PARAJON has always given the impression of being both a capable investigator and administrator and nothing has come to the attention of this office to indicate that he is engaged in the graft which is rather widespread in the current government. He is married, has several children and speaks English fairly well.

The above is for the Bureau's information and consideration. It is requested that this office be advised if a tour is afforded to General TAMAYO and FERNANDEZ PARAJON during the time they are in Washington.

On September 20, 1955, Mr. C. L. Trotter, Identification Division, advised that he had received a call from Dr. Dedrick of the Census Bureau requesting that a tour of the Identification Division be afforded the captioned individual. Dr. Dedrick stated that Dr. Cordova was a judge of the Cuba Electoral Court and was studying identification systems in the United States for the purpose of determining if such systems might be adapted to Cuban use.

Bureau files reflect that by letter dated February 21, 1951, the Legal Attache, Havana, advised that Dr. Cordova and another individual would visit the United States and planned to call on the FBI on or about February 23, 1951, for the purpose of discussing "cameras" and/or "preparation of identification cards."

Dr. Cordova visited the Bureau on February 26, 1951, and was afforded a brief tour of the Laboratory and Identification Division. He indicated at that time that he wished to return and make a more complete tour and was most enthusiastic regarding the work of the Bureau. He again visited the Bureau 3/9/54 but due to close schedule could not visit the Ident. Division.

Mr. Trotter stated that a tour could be afforded captioned individual at any time that was convenient but that it was his understanding that Dr. Cordova did not speak English. He requested the assistance of this office in connection with the tour.

ACTION:

Dr. Dedrick was telephonically contacted on Code 157, Extension 351 by SA W. F. Estill on 9/21/55 and arrangements made for Dr. Cordova to meet SA Estill at Mr. Trotter's office at the Identification Building at 10:00 a.m. Friday, September 23, 1955, for a tour of the Bureau identification facilities. Mr. Trotter was advised of these arrangements and he will arrange for the tour at that time. SA Estill will accompany in the capacity of interpreter.

Political Matters - Cuba

For the Bureau's information, there are attached copies of a dispatch dated November 8, 1955, prepared in the Embassy here with regard to election prospects in Cuba.

This report was prepared by Mr. Frederick C. Fornes, Jr., Embassy Political Officer, and is considered a very accurate summing up of the Cuban political situation at the present time with regard to the possibility of elections in Cuba. It is to be noted that President FULGENCIO BATISTA was elected for a four-year term on November 1, 1954, and took office on February 24, 1955. There appears to be little possibility that BATISTA would be willing to give up the office prior to the expiration of his term on February 24, 1959.
